Much of the imagery of this hymn comes from Revelation 4:2–11, which its author, an Anglican bishop, knew as a reading appointed for Trinity Sunday. The tune, written specifically for this text, reinforces the Trinitarian theme by strong dependence on the D-major triad.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

God of grace, love, and communion, we confess that we have failed to love you with all our heart, soul, and mind; and to love our neighbor as ourselves. We ignore your commandments, stray from your way, and follow other gods. Have mercy on us. Fill us with the vision of your glory, that we may always serve and praise you. Forgive our sin and raise us to new life that we may serve you faithfully and give honor to your holy name.

(silent confession)

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

PASSING OF THE PEACE Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts.

To this peace we are called as members of a single body.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

HYMN OF RESPONSE 582 Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me

GLORY TO GOD (Vasile)

Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me,
and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me,
and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.

As it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be. Amen.

PRAYER OF INSTALLATION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

ANTHEM*When Silence Filled the Formless Night*

Richard Shepard

Sanctuary Singers

When silence filled the formless night and worlds unmade in darkness waited, God spoke the word and gave us light, and loved what he created. Beyond the ancient writer's art the word affirms our primal story: How love illuminates the heart as heav'n declares his glory. His voice still speaks through clouded years, past prisons of our own devising, and still to shadowed lives appears the brightness of his rising. He comes in Pentecostal flame, in tongues unloosed, in bondage broken; to all united by his name the word of life is spoken. Let there be light and hearts be stirred to know in Christ their sun ascending; In our beginning is the word, and in the word our ending.

Genesis 1:1-25 (pg. 1)

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM*The Majesty and Glory of Your Name*

Tom Fettke

Sanctuary Singers

When I gaze into the night skies and see the work of your fingers, the moon and stars suspended in space: Oh, what is man that you are mindful of him? You have given man a crown of glory and honor, and have made him a little lower than the angels. You have put him in charge of all creation: beasts of the field, the birds of the air, the fish of the sea. Oh, what is man that you are mindful of him?
O Lord, our God the majesty and glory of your name transcends the earth and fills the heavens. O Lord, our God; little children praise you perfectly, and so would we. Alleluia!

SCRIPTURE READING

Genesis 1:1:226-2:4a (pg.1)

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

All things bright and beau-ti - ful, all crea-tures great and small,

all things wise and won - der - ful, the Lord God made them all. Fine

 2 The pur - ple-head-ed moun-tain, the riv - er run-ning by, the sun - set, and the morn - ing that bright-ens up the sky:

 how great is God Al - might - y, who has made all things well. to Refrain

One of a series of hymns the author wrote for children on the Apostles' Creed, this text (originally in seven stanzas) expands "Maker of heaven and earth." The first stanza became the refrain when the text was later set to a popular tune from the age of King Charles II.

The crux of this text comes in the second stanza: if we dare to claim God-given abilities, we need also to show God-like compassion for the human needs that confront us daily. The earthy shape note tune provides a further reminder that we must not lose our heads in the clouds.
