

THE CHURCH & YOU

September 2019

Presbyterian Women Month

Who are we? We are women who are in any way affiliated with First Presbyterian Church of Oklahoma City with a desire to grow in faith, build community, work for justice and peace and develop leaders. Everything we do as an organization and as a community is guided by our Presbyterian Women (PW) Purpose and that includes ministry, resources and relationships.

PW Purpose: Forgiven and freed by God in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study, to support the mission of the church worldwide, to work for justice and peace and to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (USA) and witnesses to the promise of God's kingdom.

Anyone who supports the Purpose in any way is participating in Presbyterian Women. So even if you're just learning about Presbyterian Women, there's a good chance you're already supporting Presbyterian Women—in spirit or in action!

Interested in getting involved? Join a Circle! A circle is a Bible study fellowship group that meets once a month to nurture faith through prayer and study. We have three circles at FPC-OKC: Abigail, Phoebe and Pricilla. The main difference amongst the three are the times they meet. All circles meet once a month, two meet during the day on the second Tuesday and one meets in the evening on the third Tuesday.

Bible study ... It's the glue that holds PW together. This year's study is "Love Carved in Stone: A Fresh Look at the Ten Commandments." It can be read and studied by individuals, but it's what the individuals discover together through group prayer and Bible study that nurtures PW. You can take a deeper look at what the study has to offer on page three!

If you have any questions, want to learn more about PW or are ready to join, reach out to PW Moderator Darci McKinnon (darcimckinnon@gmail.com).

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF OKC

The Pastor's Perspective Growing with the Church by Pastor John

"Membership has its privileges!" so the saying goes, and such is the truth about the church. Our Book of Order says about the ministry of members: Membership in the Church of Jesus Christ is a joy and a privilege. It is also a commitment to participate in Christ's mission. A faithful member bears witness to God's love and grace and promises to be involved responsibly in the ministry of Christ's Church.

Do you feel God calling you to join First Presbyterian, or are you just interested in learning more about the church? All are welcome to join us for a three-week Visitor's Class. The Visitor's Class is a great way to learn more about our reformed heritage, the Presbyterian Church (USA) and the history, mission and ministry of this congregation.

The class is designed for those interested in becoming members of First Presbyterian, as well as for those who simply want to learn more about the church. The class will meet at 9:45 a.m. in Room 122. I hope to see you there! ~ Pastor John

Thursday Noon Lunch Study Begins Soon It's not too late to join!

Pastor John will kick off this study in room 122 on Sept. 12. All are welcome, and bringing a bag lunch is encouraged. The group will focus on contemplative prayer using Thomas Keating's book "Open Mind, Open Heart" as a guide. Copies of the book are available on Amazon for under $20, so get your copy and start readying yourself for spiritual growth.

Did you know we collect a food offering every month?

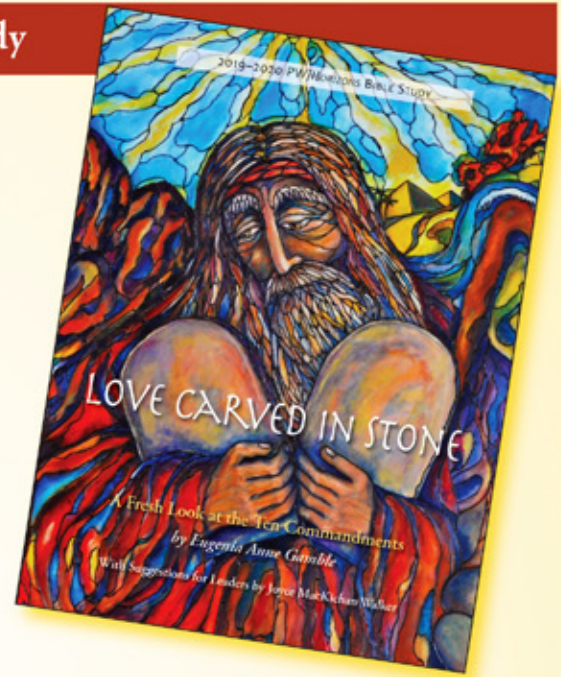

Our members help stock the shelves of The Urban Mission Food & Resource Center by providing donations through our purple bag food offering. We thank everyone who has helped with this endeavor, and we are grateful for our congregation's continued support. If you are interested in participating, just follow the steps below.

Step 1: On the first Sunday of the month, grab a purple bag from one of the entryways of the Sanctuary or Chapel.

Step 2: Fill the bag with non-perishable food items.

Step 3: Drop off the filled bag in the church office or bring it with you to the second Sunday worship of the month where we'll collect and bless the bags during service.

We thank you in advance for your generosity and taking this opportunity to feed a family.

Love Carved in Stone

A Fresh Look at the Ten Commandments

By Eugenia Anne Gamble

With Suggestions for Leaders by Joyce MacKichan Walker

What would it mean to consider the Ten Commandments not as a harsh list of what not to do but, instead, as a “love letter” from a loving God? A fresh embrace of the Ten Commandments (or Words), author Eugenia Gamble suggests, may ultimately contribute to the restoration of ourselves and our communities and the furthering of the gospel in the world. “Moral behavior matters, not simply because immoral actions can anger or disappoint God, but because principled behavior is how love becomes real, both toward God and in community.” Love Carved in Stone is a Bible study that helps us reframe the way we look at and live in the world.

Why the Ten Words? The author notes that nowhere in the Hebrew text does the word for “commandment” appear. She says, “In the Bible, these utterances are called just what they are: ‘words.’ I’ve chosen to use the term ‘Ten Words’ because it is the biblical form and opens us up to looking at the Ten Commandments in fresh ways.”

Each lesson begins with an exploration of one of the Ten Words in its biblical context. From there we consider a moment from Jesus’ life that shows us how he lived out that Word. We then consider the Word for our own lives and contexts. We conclude with an invitation to pray with the Word in our circles or study groups and in our personal devotions.

Summary of the Ten Words

The First Word calls us to allow God to be our One and Only.

The Second Word asks us not to be fooled into substituting other things for God.

The Third Word summons us into deep and honest intimacy with God for who God is and not for what God can do for us.

The Fourth Word calls us, regularly and without fail, to stop and rest in the beauty and provision of God for us and for the whole human family.

The Fifth Word calls us to honor that which is honorable in our heritages and give a place of precedence to those who bring us to the fullness of life.

The Sixth Word calls us, as individuals and as a society, to refuse to “take life,” whether in literal or metaphorical ways.

The Seventh Word reminds us that life-long commitments matter, not just to us but to the whole community.

The Eighth Word reminds us not to take from others—not their possessions, their self-esteem, or their livelihood. This word asks us to ponder how our choices take from or lift up others.

The Ninth Word calls us to fundamental honesty in all of our dealings and in the institutions of our society.

The Tenth Word calls each of us to trust God’s provision and to welcome the unique lives that we live.

About the authors

Eugenia A. Gamble is a PC(USA) pastor who has served the church for more than thirty years. She is an author, speaker, preacher, and retreat leader who loves nothing more than to help the Bible come alive in people’s lives. In addition to Love Carved in Stone, Eugenia wrote Glimpses of Home, the 1995–1996 PW/Horizons Bible study. Eugenia is married to Rob Phillips; they live on the central coast of California with their beloved keeshond, Abigail. Eugenia joined her first PW circle in seminary and says she would not have been able to negotiate life without her sisters.

Suggestions for Leaders writer Joyce MacKichan Walker recently retired as the minister of education and mission at Nassau Presbyterian Church in Princeton, New Jersey, where she served for thirty years. A 1979 graduate of the Presbyterian School of Christian Education (now Union Presbyterian Seminary), her first love has always been teaching. Upgrades and Enhancements Coming Soon Session Approved Projects

On behalf of the Trustees, Resource Council, Session and Staff, I am pleased to announce Session's approval to proceed with a number of projects to enhance the use of our incredible church facility by church members, guests and the surrounding community! Ten separate projects were approved for a total cost not to exceed $320,000. At the recommendation of the Resource Council, sufficient funds are available from various church cash accounts, as well as a specific bequest from the Frank and Jean Stockham Estate, to pay for the entirety of the projects—without having to draw from the FPC Endowment Fund or launch a separate capital campaign. We are blessed to have the resources to proceed with these projects! Special thanks to Jack Lancaster, Director of Facilities, who will provide valuable help in coordinating, supervising and in some cases, installing these projects.

Approved Projects:

- Resurface and Stripe Parking Lots (main lots south of church and two smaller lots west of Western)
- Replace Watchorn Entry Doors
- Install Exterior Informational Signs
- Update/Repair Pastor's Office
- Install Carpet Squares in the Rec. Room
- Install a Graded Entry to Watchorn Hall
- Replace Basement Hallway Flooring
- Add Handicap Seating in the Chapel

Growing Christian Relationships, Faith & Community

Indian Nations Presbytery (INP) is hosting a two-day LOGOS training event on Friday, Sept. 6 from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. (dinner provided), and Sept. 7 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. LOGOS is a program of GenOn ministries that is based on theology and focuses on the practice of growing intergenerational Christian relationships in a planned and purposeful setting. This training event is free to all INP church members through a generous grant from our presbytery.

Why should I attend LOGOS training, and what does this have to do with KirkNight or with our church in general? A lot of people say they want to see the church grow, they want to see our programs grow and they want to see our families grow. What we truly want is to see the Kingdom of God grow! LOGOS provides a framework that could help us meet the faith-formation goals of our current church family and will also help us reach our friends who may not have a church home as well as families and individuals who are in and out of our building every day, such as SPARK, First Presbyterian School and El Sistema.

I want to encourage anyone with a heart for seeing our church grow to get involved as we try to reach out to even more families. This training is intended to help us learn about ways to foster intergenerational relationships through our KirkNight program, which is a huge step in making connections with those outside of our membership.

I would love to have as many people as possible come see how we can adapt the LOGOS model to fit our KirkNight program. Please reach out to me if you can attend, and I will make a reservation for you.

Peace in Christ,
Leigh Miller
Director of Christian Education
